

Do your students know about DROP DOWN MENUS WITH CLOZE?

Online testing with PARCC will most likely include questions which contain drop down menus used with CLOZE-type questions. With CLOZE questions, key words have been removed from the text at different intervals. The student has to choose the correct answer from words displayed in a DROP DOWN MENU and then click on SUBMIT to record their answer.

Here is an example of a CLOZE-type question:

Directions: Select the words that make the following statement a true sentence.

In the diagram above, the Moon is held in orbit by its own inertia and

Combined, these two factors result in its gravity

mass
motion

speed
gravity
weight

Submit

In this example, the student who chose gravity from the first drop down menu and motion from the second and then clicked on SUBMIT gave the right response.

Help your students prepare for PARCC testing. Show them this example of a DROP DOWN MENUS WITH CLOZE . For questions about PARCC and to view more sample questions, visit: <http://www.parcconline.org/>.